Members Are In This TOGETHER!

- Putting Kids First • Promoting Professional Excellence
- Improving the Well-Being of School Employees

Building a quality workforce requires attention and focus by employers and employees alike. The Food Services Quality Workforce in our public schools has not happened by accident. A quality workforce emerges from an ongoing effort by all employees in the district to contribute to the school community "state of readiness."

With your membership, NEA-NM works hard to achieve the respect, pay, and benefits you deserve. This includes efforts for higher wages, fair transfer procedures, fair evaluations, relevant and current skill set training, and career-enhancing professional development programs.
